THE MIDDLE YEARS DEVELOPMENT INSTRUMENT (MDI) IS COMING TO YOUR SCHOOL IN FEBRUARY!

Jewelry Making

School District No. 28 has partnered with the Human Early Learning Partnership (HELP) at the University of British Columbia to measure and promote children's social and emotional development, health, well-being, and assets through the Middle Year Development Instrument (MDI).

The Middle Years Development Instrument (MDI) is a self-report questionnaire that asks children in middle childhood about their thoughts, feelings and experiences. The MDI is the first survey of its kind to gather information about the lives of children both in school, in the home and in the community, from their own perspective. The survey questions align with the BC Ministry of Education's K-12 curriculum, which includes a focus on promoting children's personal and social competencies.

Once upon a time, in a gray endless place called Cementland, a boy finds a treasure box. It's filled with tiny specks and a wrinkled note that says, "Put these wondrous riches in the earth and enjoy." But a special treasure requires a special guardian, so the boy conjures a creature to protect the specks: Frog Belly Rat Bone.
